I'm looking forward to looking back on getting through,
This cloud I'm under till I'm over loving you,
You know I've tried to step aside, but no can do,
This cloud I'm under 'till I'm over loving you.

I look you up when I am down, that's what I do,
I'm turned around and losing ground, you know it's true.
You had no right, the day you left, to say we're through,
This cloud I'm under 'till I'm over loving you.

It all comes down to looking up when skies are blue,
In days to come, as heartaches go, this one will too,
The sun is out, but rain is in the forecast too,
This cloud I'm under 'till I'm over loving you.
